

WORKPLACE HEALTH AND SAFETY (WHS) POLICY

(formerly Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) Policy)

1. Purpose and Commitment

The purpose of the Workplace Health and Safety (WHS) policy is to outline actions taken in our journey to becoming a Zero Harm workplace by preventing injuries before they occur.

Select Harvests' (SHV) ongoing commitment to WHS is our most important business objective and will be assessed regularly as part of the annual corporate objective and key performance indicator (KPI) setting process. WHS is a key component of our business operations, work procedures, CAPEX projects investments and acquisition evaluations.

We seek the cooperation of all employees, contractors and visitors to maintain a safe workplace. We encourage hazard reporting and ongoing suggestions to achieve our Zero Harm strategy by preventing injuries before they occur.

2. Values

Our values and behaviours are critical to our culture in delivering our five key strategic priorities. SHV recognises that by living the values, and treating each other with trust and respect, we all contribute to the long-term success of the business.

3. Scope of Policy

This policy applies to all employees and other workers engaged by SHV (together, Workers). This includes independent contractors. Some aspects of this Policy apply to employees only, as indicated.

Workers are expected to familiarise themselves with SHV's WHS policies and procedures. For more information on the SHV's WHS policy and procedure, such as Fitness for work, Hazard identification, accident prevention and incident reporting, first aid and emergency response, please refer to SHV's WHS manual.

4. Policy Objective

Safety is paramount to SHV. As such, the objective of this Policy is to continue to improve our safety performance as part of our Zero Harm and Wellbeing strategy.

5. Safety Manual

SHV communicates key elements of its WHS procedures in the company's Safety Manual. The Safety Manual is regularly updated to reflect the requirements of WHS legislation and is monitored and evaluated to ensure its integrity and effectiveness. A copy of the Safety Manual, or applicable sections, is available electronically or from the HR Department.

6. The Law

Workplace Health and Safety laws apply in all states and territories (WHS Legislation). Both SHV together with its employees have certain duties regarding safety under the WHS Legislation and other relevant legislation in the State where they work.

7. SHV's Duties

- a) SHV's general duty is to provide and maintain so far as is reasonably practicable a working environment that is safe and without risks to health.
- b) There are a number of ways this duty is met:
 - I) by providing and maintaining safe plant and systems of work;
 - II) by maintaining any workplace under our control and management in a condition that is safe and without risks to health;
 - III) by providing adequate facilities for the welfare of staff at any workplace under our control and management;
 - IV) by providing adequate information, instruction, training and supervision to staff, to enable them to work in a manner that is safe and without risks to health;
 - V) by keeping information and records relating to the health and safety of staff; and
 - VI) by monitoring the conditions at any workplace under our management and control.
- c) This is SHV's legal duty. We will, however, aspire to even higher standards.

8. Worker's Duties

While at work Workers must:

- a) take reasonable care for their own health and safety and for the health and safety of other workers, clients, contractors, visitors and anyone else who may be affected by their acts or omissions at the workplace;
- b) co-operate with SHV with respect to any action taken by SHV to comply with any requirements imposed by or under WHS Legislation, including in relation to fitness for work assessments (see below);

WORKPLACE HEALTH AND SAFETY (WHS) POLICY

(formerly Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) Policy)

- c) not wilfully or recklessly interfere with or misuse anything provided in the interests of health safety or welfare; and
- d) not wilfully put at risk the health and safety of other.

9. While attending clients' premises/sites

While attending clients' premises and sites, employees must take reasonable care for their own health and safety and comply with any on site safety requirements.

Employees should exercise common sense, care and diligence to ensure that they are performing their duties in a safe environment and manner. If an employee has concerns about their safety, they should not perform work and get assistance and guidance from their manager.

10. Breaches

We believe in building and maintaining a proactive safety culture, and therefore serious neglect or breach of safety rules is considered serious and willful misconduct that may result in performance management, including and up to dismissal without notice.
